

Hello friends,

School of Missions is now a couple weeks over! It is hard to believe that after months of planning, it ends so quickly. I loved every minute of it this year. I enjoyed meeting many of you – putting faces to names is always fun. What a sharp group of MKs came through!

Today my wife and I are up in the mountains of Switzerland running a youth camp. We have about 60 young people here from various nations and languages at the camp. I can't tell you how much I enjoy cross-cultural ministry. Sharing about Jesus to un-churched teenagers, using various languages, and of seeing lives changed has been absolutely wonderful. We will be back in SGF next week. Katherine and Graham start school on Thursday, August 17th.

As I see some MKs here at the camp, I am encouraged! So many of you are involved and active in ministry. I believe that is what God would have you doing. You may not be the one up in front preaching, or leading worship. However, you may be the one that is sitting in the back, pouring into a teenager that is really struggling with their faith. You are actively ministering to the needy! I just want to say to keep it up. That is the true call of God – to be living out your faith actively in the people around you. Don't feel like the weight of the world is on your shoulders. However, as you allow Christ to be real in you; and you allow His love to flow through you – lives will be touched for eternity! KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!

We love you guys. I know school will be starting for many of you. I will be praying that this will be a great year for you.

Bwana Chad
